Editor Holy War

The Church of Vim requires a new staging ground for the great Editor Holy War. The commissioned website include easily reachable (but not too reachable) user testimony with associated pictures, FAQs for the benefits of Vim over Emacs or other text editors, and frontlines (links to forums) where the holy war is raging. The website must have google analytics and amazon advertisements to bring in cash-money to fund the website.